The parties entered into a Consulting Agreement and Addendum, both effective April 5, 2026 (together, "Consulting Agreement"), pursuant to which Consultant provided software development services through May 26, 2026. An email was sent on April 6, 2026, terminating the Consulting Agreement; however, the parties nevertheless continued the engagement under the terms of the Consulting Agreement, except for a modification to the payment amount. The parties wish to resolve all matters between them, confirm their respective rights, and provide for a final settlement.

between the parties through the date of this Agreement. Each party waives any rights under California Civil Code Section 1542, which provides that a general release does not extend to claims the releasing party does not know or suspect to exist.

8. Non-Disparagement. Each party agrees not to make disparaging or negative statements about the other to any third party, including investors, employers, or the public. This provision does not prevent truthful testimony in any legal proceeding.

10. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the laws of California. Disputes shall be resolved by binding arbitration in San Francisco County under JAMS rules. Each party bears its own attorneys' fees and an equal share of arbitration costs.

11. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, including the Consulting Agreement effective April 5, 2026, the Addendum thereto, and any subsequent agreements or termination notices, including the April 6, 2026 termination notice. Any modification must be in writing and signed by both parties.

12. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions remain in full force.
