Subcontractor Agreement

This agreement ("Agreement") is made effective as of 04 / 29 / 2026 (the "Commencement Date") between Test Double Inc., an Ohio corporation (the "Company"), and Brian Kenji Takita (the "Subcontractor" and together, the "Parties"), who hereby agree as follows:

1. Engagement. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions described in this Agreement, the Company hereby engages the Subcontractor, and the Subcontractor hereby accepts such engagement with the Company, to perform the activities indicated on the Statement of Work (the "Services") attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Subcontractor shall devote to the Company such portion of their professional time, attention, energy, loyalty, and skill as may be necessary to fully perform the Services and hereby promises to perform and discharge the Services. Work that the Subcontractor performs for the Company may be performed for the benefit of third-party clients of the Company and such third-party clients are hereinafter referred to as a "Client" or "Clients".
2. Compensation.
    1. Payment. In exchange for the satisfactory performance of the Services the Company shall pay the Subcontractor a weekly rate in the amount set forth on the Statement of Work (the "Compensation"). Subcontractor shall submit to Company semi-monthly invoices for the number of days worked for the prior invoicing period (1st to the 15th or 16th to the last day of the month). All invoices must be delivered within ten (10) days of the completion of the invoiced work. Payment to Subcontractor shall be made within 30 days of the receipt of each invoice from the Subcontractor.
    2. Breach. In the event that Subcontractor fails to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 4 or breaches any other provision(s) in and of this Agreement, Subcontractor will have ten (10) days from the receipt of written notice thereof to cure any breach or default hereunder; thereafter, if any breach or default remains uncured, Subcontractor shall forfeit any rights to any pending or future payments from Company. Payment to the Subcontractor is specifically agreed not to constitute or imply acceptance by Company of any portion of the Subcontractor's work.
3. Covenants.
    1. Confidentiality. Subcontractor shall forever treat as confidential and not in any manner use, disseminate, publish, or disclose, except as is necessary in the ordinary course of business and Subcontractor is authorized, any information regarding the Company's or Client's business including, without limitation, and whether or not marked as "confidential" and in whatever form or medium, internal business information, trade secrets, proprietary data, financial information, intellectual property, customers lists, supplier lists, original works of authorship, know-how or other intangible property protectable under federal, state or foreign law, which shall have come or shall hereafter come into Subcontractor's possession or which Subcontractor learns.

2. Non-solicitation. From the Commencement Date until 12 months after the termination of this Agreement (the "Restricted Period"), Subcontractor will not, without the Company's or Client's prior written consent, directly or indirectly,
    1. perform for the Client services of any kind or enter into any Agreement to perform such services either as an employee or independent contractor for the Client that would bypass the role Company is playing in the overall transaction;
    2. solicit or encourage any employee or contractor of the Company, a Client, or affiliates of either to terminate employment with, or cease providing services to, the Company, a Client, or affiliates of either; or
    3. (iii)whether for Subcontractor's own account or for the account of any other person, firm, corporation or other business organization, intentionally interfere with the Company's relationship with any person who is or during the period of Subcontractor's engagement by the Company was a contractor, partner, supplier, customer or client of the Company, a Client, or affiliates of either.
3. Acknowledgment. The Subcontractor acknowledges that (i) the foregoing covenants are fundamental and essential for protecting the Company's legitimate business interests, including without limitation interests in the Company's confidential information, and not to arbitrarily restrict or prevent the Subcontractor from utilizing their general technical skills, (ii) such provisions are reasonable and appropriate in all respects, and (iii) in the event of any violation by the Subcontractor of any of such covenants, the Company would suffer irreparable harm and its remedies at law would be inadequate. In the event of any violation or attempted violation of such covenants by the Subcontractor, the Company shall be entitled to a temporary restraining order, temporary and permanent injunctions, specific performance and other equitable relief without any showing of irreparable harm or damage or the posting of any bond, in addition to any other rights or remedies which may then be available to the Company.

4. Term and Termination.
    1. Term. The term of Subcontractor's engagement shall begin as of the Commencement Date and shall continue until the earlier of (i) the termination date indicated on the Statement of Work, (ii) the completion of Services, or (iii) early termination by either party.

2. Termination by Subcontractor. If the Subcontractor terminates the agreement within the first 60 days of the start date, they forfeit any outstanding invoices. Post the first 60 days, in the event that Subcontractor wishes to terminate this Agreement prior to the end date or there is no reasonably clear ending date in the Statement of Work, Subcontractor may terminate engagement by sending written notice of such termination to the Company at least 30 days before ending work. In the event of such termination, Company shall pay the Subcontractor for the Services performed satisfactorily prior to termination within 30 days of receipt of an invoice provided Subcontractor has not materially breached this Agreement.
3. Termination by Company. Company may terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, by written notice to the Subcontractor. In the event of such termination, Company shall pay the Subcontractor for the Services performed satisfactorily prior to termination within 30 days of receipt of an invoice thereof.

5. Work For Hire. The Subcontractor expressly acknowledges and agrees that any work prepared by the Subcontractor under this Agreement shall be considered "work for hire" and the exclusive property of the Company or Client unless otherwise specified. To the extent such work may not be deemed a "work for hire" under applicable law, the Subcontractor hereby assigns to the Company or Client all of its right, title, and interest in and to such work. The Subcontractor shall execute and deliver to the Company any instruments of transfer and take such other action that the Company may reasonably request, including, without limitation, executing and filing, at the Company's expense, copyright applications, assignments, and other documents required for the protection of the Company's rights to such materials.
6. Insurance. Subcontractor will maintain insurance as required for specific engagements and provide evidence from time to time to Company that Subcontractor meets such requirements.
7. Independent Contractor; Benefits.
    1. Independent Contractor. It is the express intention of the Company and Contractor that Contractor perform the Services as an independent contractor to the Company.
        1. The Subcontractor as an independent contractor, shall have responsibility for and control over the details and means for providing the Services under this Agreement and shall not be regarded as a partner, employee, representative or agent of the Company for any purpose. Subcontractor is not authorized to bind the Company to any liability or obligation or to represent that Subcontractor has any such authority. Subcontractor acknowledges and agrees that Subcontractor is obligated to report as income all compensation received by Subcontractor pursuant to this Agreement.
        2. Subcontractor agrees to and acknowledges the obligation to pay all self-employment and other taxes on such income.

3. (iii)Subcontractor shall furnish all labor, materials, and equipment as are necessary for the proper and satisfactory performance of the Services.

2. Benefits. The Company and Subcontractor agree that Subcontractor will receive no Company-sponsored benefits from the Company. If Subcontractor is reclassified by a state or federal agency or court as Company's employee, Subcontractor will become a reclassified employee and will receive no benefits from the Company, except those mandated by state or federal law, even if by the terms of the Company's benefit plans or programs of the Company in effect at the time of such reclassification Subcontractor would otherwise be eligible for such benefits.

8. Compliance. The Subcontractor agrees to be bound by and, at its own cost, to comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations applicable to the Subcontractor's Services. The Subcontractor shall be liable to Company for all liabilities, losses, costs and expenses including, but not limited to, any failure of the Subcontractor or its agents, employees or sub-contractors to comply with laws, as imposed upon Company or Clients as a result thereof.
9. Warranty.
    1. Third-Party Rights. Subcontractor warrants that no work performed or intellectual property utilized in the performance of Services violates the rights of any third-party. In the event that the Services provided by the Subcontractor violate the rights of any third-party, Subcontractor agrees to indemnify Company for all damages, losses, expenses, costs, and attorneys' fees whatsoever resulting from the breach of this Agreement by the Recipient.
    2. Quality of Service. Every part of the Services shall be executed in strict accordance with this Agreement and in a sound, workmanlike, efficient and substantial manner. The Subcontractor agrees to use reasonable care, skill, competence and judgment in the performance of its Services hereunder.
10. Other Requirements.
    1. Subcontracting. The Subcontractor may not use further subcontractors or subconsultants to perform any of the Services without prior written consent of the Company.
    2. References to Work Performed. Subcontractor shall not reference the Client nor work completed for Company or Client in promotional materials or in any manner to promote the services of the Subcontractor.
11. Indemnification. The Subcontractor agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Company and Clients and their present and future officers, directors, employees, owners, agents, sub-contractors, sub-consultants, successors and assigns against all claims and liabilities including consequential or indirect damages arising out of, related to, or based upon the negligence or willful misconduct of the Subcontractor or a breach of this Agreement by Subcontractor.

12. Auditing. The Subcontractor shall keep a detailed record of its costs associated with Services. Company or Clients may inspect these records during regular office hours, on receipt of reasonable notice, for a period of two years following the completion of the Services.
13. Attorneys' Fees. If there is any litigation or other action taken by any party or parties to enforce or interpret any provisions of or rights arising under this Agreement, the non-prevailing party or parties shall pay to the prevailing party or parties all costs and expenses, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, which the prevailing party or parties incur in enforcing this Agreement or in pursuing any remedy allowed by law, whether such is incurred by the filing of suit or otherwise, in preparation for or at trial, or in any appeal.
14. Miscellaneous. This Agreement is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Ohio. The parties designate the courts located in Columbus, Ohio as courts of proper jurisdiction and venue with respect to any action or controversy under the Agreement and waive any defenses to jurisdiction and venue with respect to any actions brought in such courts. This Agreement is binding upon and inures to the benefit of and is enforceable by the parties to this Agreement and their respective successors and assigns. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the parties and supersedes any prior agreements and understandings, whether oral or written, between them with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. The headings of this Agreement are for convenience only and will not control or affect the meaning or construction of the provisions of this Agreement. This Agreement may not be terminated, modified, or amended orally or by any course of conduct or usage of trade except by an agreement in writing duly executed by the parties. Any waiver of a breach of any provisions of this Agreement is limited to the particular breach, and should not be deemed to be a continuing waiver of the same breach, and should not be deemed a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement. If any portion of this Agreement is determined to be unenforceable or invalid, the remainder of this Agreement remains binding and effective against all parties and their respective successors and assigns. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same Agreement. All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements in or under this Agreement, and in any other documents executed or delivered pursuant to this Agreement or in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, survive the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement. Each party will execute, acknowledge or verify, and deliver any and all documents which may from time to time be reasonably requested by the other party to carry out the purpose and intent of this Agreement.
